Matter for Council

SERIAL NO. ——

The post of Lady Supt of the Maharan Girls School Mysore has been vacant for some time by the death of Mrs. Vokins.

After careful enquiry, the most eligible lady we can secure for the post appears to be Miss Redsdale regarding whom particulars are given in the appended memo. I accordingly propose her appointment, after obtaining the sanction of the Govt of India thereto. I would like the matter to be finally settled at tomorrow's meeting of Council

Miss Redsdale is spoken of in very high terms by every native gentleman we have been to consult and I understand from Col Roberton that Bishop Morley — regards her as a most excellent person.
